

Terms and Conditions.

1. In extreme cases, the management reserves the right to change the concert's programme content and the names of the soloists without prior warning.
2. All tickets are subject to availability.
3. Once tickets have been purchased online you may receive details of future concerts via any contact method you may provide, unless you specify otherwise when booking.
4. Lost tickets will require proof of purchase on entry to the concert.
5. Children under eleven years of age must be accompanied by a responsible adult.
6. Concessionary tickets may only be purchased online, via our Contact Us page, and will be made available at most concerts. They may be issued to children under the age of eleven, to GCSE and A Level Music students (and equivalents) and to University students on Instrumental Music Courses. Proof of student status will be required on application.
